MATTERS FOR A COMPLAINT

A complaint to the assessment review board panel may be about any of the following matters, as shown on an assessment notice or on a tax notice:

- 1 the description of the property or business
- 2 the name or mailing address of an assessed person or taxpayer
- 3 an assessment amount
- 4 an assessment class
- 5 an assessment sub-class
- 6 the type of property
- 7 the type of improvement
- 8 school support
- 9 whether the property or business is assessable
- 10 whether the property or business is exempt from taxation under Part 10, but not if the exemption is given by an agreement under section 364.1(11) that does not expressly provide for the right to make the complaint
- 11 any extent to which the property is exempt from taxation under a bylaw under section 364.1 of the Act
- 12 whether the collection of tax on the property is deferred under a bylaw under section 364.1 of the Act
- 13 a designated officer's refusal to grant an exemption or deferral under a bylaw under section 364.1 of the Act

Note: To eliminate the need to file a complaint, some matters or information shown on an assessment notice or tax notice may be corrected by contacting the municipal assessor. It is advised to discuss any concerns about the matters with the municipal assessor prior to filing this complaint.

If a complaint fee is required by the municipality, it will be indicated on the assessment notice. Your complaint form will not be filed and will be returned to you unless the required complaint fee indicated on your assessment notice is enclosed.

ASSESSMENT REVIEW BOARD PANELS

A local assessment review board panel will hear complaints about residential property with 3 or fewer dwelling units, farm land or matters shown on a tax notice (other than a property tax notice).

A composite assessment review board panel will hear complaints about residential property with 4 or more dwelling units or non-residential property.

DISCLOSURE

Disclosure must include:

All relevant facts supporting the matters of complaint described on this complaint form.

All documentary evidence to be presented at the hearing.

A list of witnesses who will give evidence at the hearing.

A summary of testimonial evidence.

The legislative grounds and reason for the complaint.

Relevant case law and any other information that the complainant considers relevant.

Disclosure timelines:

For a complaint about any matter other than an assessment, the parties must provide full disclosure at least 7 days before the scheduled hearing date.

For a complaint about an assessment - local assessment review board panel:

Complainant must provide full disclosure at least 21 days before the scheduled hearing date.

Respondent must provide full disclosure at least 7 days before the scheduled hearing date.

Complainant must provide rebuttal at least 3 days before the scheduled hearing date.

For a complaint about an assessment - composite assessment review board panel:

Complainant must provide full disclosure at least 42 days before the scheduled hearing date.

Respondent must provide full disclosure at least 14 days before the scheduled hearing date.

Complainant must provide rebuttal at least 7 days before the scheduled hearing date.

DISCLOSURE RULES

Timelines for disclosure must be followed;

Information that has not been disclosed will not be heard by an assessment review board panel.

Disclosure timelines can be reduced if the disclosure information is provided at the time the complaint form is filed. Both the complainant and the assessor must agree to reduce the timelines.

PENALTIES

A Composite Assessment Review Board Panel may award costs against any party to a complaint that has not provided full disclosure in accordance with the regulations.

IMPORTANT NOTICES

Your completed complaint form and any supporting attachments, the agent authorization form and the prescribed filing fee must be submitted to the person and address with whom a complaint must be filed as shown on the assessment notice or tax notice, prior to the deadline indicated on the assessment notice or tax notice. Complaints with an incomplete complaint form, complaints submitted after the filing deadline, or complaints without the required filing fee are invalid.

An assessment review board panel must not hear any matter in support of an issue that is not identified on the complaint form.

The clerk will notify all parties of the hearing date and location.

For more details about disclosure please see the Matters Relating to Assessment Complaints Regulation.

To avoid penalties, taxes must be paid on or before the deadline specified on the tax notice even if a complaint is filed.
